PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Huang Binle is a dispute resolution lawyer based in Han Kun's Shanghai office. She has been in practice since 2018, focusing on complex cross-border commercial disputes — in particular, control and economic interest disputes arising from equity, fund, trust-related, and other sophisticated structures.

Ms. Huang has extensive experience in cross-border litigation, international arbitration, and the recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments and awards in China. She has represented clients in proceedings before Chinese courts and major arbitration institutions including HKIAC, CIETAC, SHIAC, and BIAC, across jurisdictions including mainland China, Hong Kong, the United States, England and Wales, the Cayman Islands, and the British Virgin Islands.

Ms. Huang advises clients on coordinated strategies across parallel multi-jurisdictional proceedings, helping them identify the critical path forward and pursue the most effective dispute resolution outcome.

EDUCATION

Ms. Huang obtained her LL.B. degree from East China University of Political Science and Law in 2016. She then attended National University of Singapore for further education and obtained her LL.M. degree with a major in International Arbitration and Dispute Resolution in 2018.
