PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Ms. Jiang Dongni specializes in tax planning as well as legal and tax services for private wealth management. Prior to joining Han Kun, Ms. Jiang was a partner with KPMG since 2018. Ms. Jiang has been engaged in tax consulting since 2005 and has worked for two of the Big 4 accounting firms. She also worked at the International Tax Center in Manhattan, New York, in one of the Big 4 accounting firms.

She has extensive experience in providing professional services in China and the United States, involving areas such as investment and financing, domestic and international IPOs, and high-net-worth individuals. Ms. Jiang holds certifications as a Chinese Certified Public Accountant (CPA), Certified Tax Agent, and Legal Professional Qualification, as well as a CPA license for New York State in U.S. She has advised on several well-known M&A transactions in the new economy sector and is a trusted tax consultant for many well-known enterprises and entrepreneurs. She is adept at providing tax planning, tax restructuring and implementation for M&As, international operations, tax preference applications, tax risk management, and tax dispute resolution services.

Ms. Jiang has long provided personalized legal and tax services to high-net-worth individuals, specializing in family trust structure design, individual income tax planning related to equity incentive mechanisms as well as compensation and benefits systems. She also provides tailored legal and tax consulting and implementation services concerning personal wealth management for founders and senior management of several well-known listed and pre-IPO companies, as well as investment funds.

Ms. Jiang is particularly skilled in U.S. tax planning and filing. She provides personalized U.S. tax and international tax services, including cross-border asset planning and cross-border structural design, to high-net-worth individuals with U.S. citizenship or green cards, as well as Chinese enterprises and investment funds investing in the U.S. Her expertise spans industries such as real estate, cross-border logistics, healthcare, and high-tech. In addition to being a New York State CPA, Ms. Jiang is also certified by the IRS as a recommended CPA for U.S. tax filing in 2024 and 2025.

EDUCATION

Ms. Jiang received a Bachelor of Engineering degree and a master's degree in Accounting, both from Beijing Jiaotong University.
